Чтение (контроль навыков)

Прочитайте и переведите текст.

William Shakespeare.

Nowadays people seem to read newspapers mostly. Many people are fond of reading detective stories or spy thrillers. I myself prefer books about politics, history.

I enjoy reading books by such English writers as Charles Dickens, Walter Scott. My favorite writer is William Shakespeare, one of the outstanding personalities in the world literature.

William Shakespeare was born in Stratford-upon-Avon not far from London. His father, John Shakespeare, came to Stratford from a village and opened a shop there. He never became a rich man but at one time he was an important official in the city. William Shakespeare lived in Stratford until he was twenty-one. He got married and had three children. At the age of 21 William left Stratford for London to join a company of actors. William Shakespeare lived and worked in London for 25 years.

In all William Shakespeare wrote 37 plays, 2 long poems, a sonnet cycle of 155 small pieces.

William Shakespeare had a natural gift for comedy. In his comedies William Shakespeare describes the adventures of young men and women, their love, friendship, happiness.

In England and other countries it is the highest honor for an actor to be invited to play in a comedy or tragedy by William Shakespeare. In the last 35 years all the plays by William Shakespeare have been filmed. Since 1879 Shakespeare's Festival has been held every year at Stratford-upon-Avon.

A There are a few reasons why one should go to Russia during the winter: it's easier to get tickets to the top ballets and operas, and there are no crowds at other tourist attractions. Those visiting in winter should take along their warmest clothes: It's bitterly cold (Moscow is as far north as southern Alaska) and quite dry. We recommend a long warm coat – the best you can afford.

B Jamie Oliver is a genius in the world of food. He is one of the world's best-loved television personalities. Jamie has inspired millions of people to spend more time enjoying being in the kitchen – and even start growing their own food! C London is famous for one of the mildest climates in the UK. However, Londoners are used to carrying both an umbrella and sunglasses to be prepared for any situation! The number of rainy days there is fairly consistent throughout the year, with between 11 and 15 rainy days every month. Overall rainfall is highest in November and August and is lowest in March and April.

D One of the best things about cooking is that there are lots of different things you can do. There are so many different areas you can go into. If you want, you can take up baking and cake decorating. You can try your hand at creating dishes from specific countries; there are so many national cuisines. One thing's for certain; you won't get bored quickly.

E Russians have always eaten vegetables, such as turnips, cabbage, radish, and cucumbers. Since the 18th century, the potato began to play an ever more important role as one of the most loved ingredients in Russian dishes. At the beginning of the 19th century, Russian cooks started serving food with sauces in the manner that French cuisine had long been famous for.

Speaker 1 (middle-aged woman) I know the work they do for the homeless is fantastic, and they do raise a lot of money to help but, really, I would never buy anything from there. I'd like to, but I'm not keen on buying something second-hand when I can find what I want somewhere else brand-new. I'm not saying the shop should close down though!

Speaker 2 (middle-aged man) I know that young people today are busier than my generation used to be. Their schoolwork is more demanding, and there's extra pressure to go to university or college. But this doesn't mean that they shouldn't help out their parents, though. I mean, if they organise their schedules better, they can find a couple of hours in the day to help out with the housework or even get a part-time job, so they can have their own money.

Speaker 3 (middle-aged woman) I'm sure some people find credit cards useful at times when they need to spend more money than they have.

But everyone I know that has a credit card finds it difficult to pay it off. I think our lives would be easier if this plastic temptation didn't even exist!

Speaker 4 (teenage girl) When the envelope containing my exam results arrived, I couldn't have been more anxious. I was sure I hadn't passed at least half of my exams and that I'd got terrible marks in the rest of them. What would I tell my parents?

But when I opened the envelope, I was far from disappointed. I had received top marks for all my exams!

Speaker 5 (teenage boy) The money I get from working in the cafe is really good. My parents couldn't afford to give me more pocket money, so they suggested I get a part-time job. At first I didn't want one. I thought it would be really tiring going to work after school, but now I wouldn't have it any other way.

Speaker 6 (young man) The interview was going really well until he asked about my previous experience, and then I just didn't have anything to say. All my friends had told me to lie about it, but I told him honestly that I had never had a job before. In the end he told me he really appreciated my honesty and that I could start working for them as soon as I could! Can you believe it?

1 Being picked on at school is becoming more and more common and it has nothing to do with the kind of school you go to. It can happen at schools with both good and bad reputations. The difference lies in how schools deal with the situation. Some schools place a lot of emphasis on finding solutions to the problem, while other schools tend to ignore it and pretend it is not happening.

2 Making and maintaining friendships can be one of the most fulfilling things in your life. It can also be really difficult to do, especially for teenagers, who are still not sure about what they are looking for or what they need in a friend. One thing is for certain, though. If you form a close friendship with someone, it can be very upsetting if things go wrong.

3 Participants in peer mediation schemes have the opportunity to talk through their conflicts with the help of trained student mediators. Peer mediators do not take sides or blame anyone. They listen to all participants and help them to develop their own solution to the conflict. If you are feeling frustrated or angry with a friend but have not approached them about your feelings, mediation can help! It gives you the opportunity to confront a person you are in conflict with, in a non-violent way.

4 More and more teenagers are becoming unhappy with the way they look, especially when they regard tall, thin, beautiful celebrities such as Victoria Beckham, as role models. It is very difficult, of course, for teenagers to be happy with their bodies when they feel they have to meet such unattainable standards.

5 Most teenagers would claim that their parents don't understand their needs, while most parents believe that it is impossible for them to get through to their teenage children. The truth is probably somewhere in the middle. Both sides should try to be more understanding and open to the other's ideas and feelings.

6 There are lots of things that teenagers are tempted to buy; CDs, mobile phone top-ups, computer games etc. But how can they afford all these things? More and more teenagers are getting part-time jobs in order to cover their expenses, and this gives them a feeling of independence. Of course, some teenagers get paid on a regular basis by their parents in return for doing chores around the house.

7 Young people nowadays feel under so much stress that they sometimes find it hard to cope. Exams are a major cause of concern for teenagers because the career they choose depends on the marks they get in their final school examinations. Therefore, teenagers need to learn how to deal with this kind of stress, which will prepare them for other kinds of pressures they will face in later life.

Speaker 3 (female)

I love reading about the stars but I think the press has gone too far. They should respect the privacy of celebrities. Getting involved in their personal lives is wrong. Tougher laws are needed to stop the gutter press from interfering in their lives.

Speaker 4 (male)

I can't get enough of celebrity coverage in the media. I'm a big movie fan, so I want to know all about the stars on the big screen. Everyone enjoys hearing a bit of gossip every so often, and I don't think that there is anything wrong with that! After all, it's the price celebrities have to pay for being famous.

Speaker 5 (female)

I agree there is too much celebrity coverage in the news but people can certainly choose what they want to watch. Personally, I simply change the channel if I'm not interested in the latest celebrity scandals.

Speaker 6 (female)

For some, tuning in to celebrity news is a way of escaping the pressures of everyday life. Hearing about the famous helps people dream about a life of riches. I understand but ... I'm not interested in hearing about celebrities, not one bit.

Test 8 – Listening

Speaker 1 (woman)

Spending the weekend at the country house was perfect when I was younger, but now I've grown rather tired of it. For me, an ideal weekend away involves going to popular nearby locations and taking in new scenery. Of course, it'd be great if I had the money to jet off to the cosmopolitan capitals of Europe every other week, but I suppose that won't be happening any time soon!

Speaker 2 (man)

Bangkok must be one of the best places I've ever visited. I had the chance to see the city during a three-day stopover on my way to Melbourne. I'd never expected it, but Thailand's capital turned out to be a tourist's paradise! So fascinated was I by the Asian culture, I've decided that my next destination will be Beijing, another great culture capital in Asia.

Speaker 3 (woman)

When I agreed to join my friends on a five-day trip to a remote island in the Mediterranean, I never expected to have such a great experience. Being an island of few inhabitants, it sounded like a terribly boring place. But the truth is that we found so many things to do there that we barely had a moment's rest! What truly amazed me, though, was the ease with which the locals struck up conversation with us, or offered to show us around the island. It was as if they'd known us for years!

Speaker 4 (teenage boy)

I'm happy to join my parents and my younger sister on family trips, but I'm also at an age where I need to spend some time off with my friends too. Mum and Dad think that going on holiday with them has become a boring routine for me, but nothing could be further from the truth. Perhaps, on our next trip, I could bring a couple of friends along. Then we'd all be happy!

Speaker 5 (man)

Everyone is excited at the idea of a foreign holiday, but not many of us are crazy about all the preparations. Yet a reliable travel agent and good organisational skills on your part will make holiday planning much easier for you. Of course, it's important to do a bit of reading on the traditions and habits of your chosen destination, so you don't find yourself experiencing a culture shock!

Speaker 6 (woman)

Whenever I travel by plane, I always make sure that I allow myself a little extra time to do some duty-free shopping at the airport. Although many of them have a limited range of goods compared to shops in the city, their low prices are certainly appealing. My brother says they're great for last-minute shopping, but for me duty-free shopping is just an opportunity to buy my favourite perfume and nice souvenirs at almost half price.
